The exhibition was introduced with the following text: Truth, myth and the spaces in-between in visual representations of the North of England. The exhibition explored contemporary artistic and stylistic representations of the north of England and featured contemporary photography, fashion and multimedia work, sitting alongside social documentary film and photography, to highlight how the realities of life in the north of England were captured in the mid-20th century.

The photographs were also reproduced in the catalogue of the same name: ISBN 978-0-9556621-9-5
